Description

One-and-one-half story, brick (common bond) building. Facade and rear elevation have stepped parapets. Windows in original portion (left side) are arched with radiating voussoirs and two-over-two sash. Windows on facade light offices located at the front of the building; these offices are one room deep and two stories high. The remainder of the interior is open. Original portion of building has slightly gabled roof. 1960s addition (right) has a flat built-up roof. All elevations contain loading and drive-in bays.

Significance

The Old Brick Warehouse, constructed between 1903 and 1908, is the oldest extant tobacco warehouse and is believed to be the first brick tobacco warehouse in Mullins.[23] As such, it is significant for its association with the marketing of tobacco in the area.

Acreage ± 2.35 acres

Verbal Boundary Description

The nominated property is shown as the red line on the accompanying Dillon County Tax Map #6, drawn at a scale of 1 inch = 100 feet. This boundary includes the warehouse and the lot on which it is situated.
